

WE ARE HIRING

Freelance

2 x Community
Engagement
Officers

Due to exciting new projects, Healthwatch Herefordshire are looking for 2 people to join the team as Community Engagement Officers.

Working with Healthwatch on a freelance basis for a 6 month period, successful candidates will be required to do sessional hours which within reason, could be completed around other fixed work.

Successful candidates will work on one of two projects which focus on community led research and community support for frailty.

Candidates should:

- Have experience of community engagement or a strong understanding of Herefordshire communities
- Be confident to plan, manage and implement the project themselves
- Be able to work a minimum of 1 or 2 full days (depending on which project they are allocated to).

To apply

Before sending a CV candidates are encouraged to call Operational Manager Sam Jenkins for an informal chat to discuss the role in more detail, their availability and hourly rate expectations.
